

I am a newspaper journalist and I want you to know that I do not want the FCC to lift the cross-ownership ban to allow further media consolidation.

Television journalism is immediate and very popular. However, it is not as in-depth as newspaper journalism can be. I do not think that a newspaper's quality should have to suffer because it is owned by the same company that owns a television station.

At this time, we need more quality news. Not television-quality news in our newspapers.

Thank you.
